STATUTORY BASIS FOR COMPENSATION

38. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, as supplemented by Bankruptcy Rule 2016. CohnReznick seeks compensation for actual, necessary professional services rendered and reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of the Committee during the Compensation Period.

39. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code permits professionals employed by the Bankruptcy Court to apply for interim compensation under the standards set forth in section 330. Section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code allows for the following: “(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by. . . [an] professional and by any paraprofessional person employed by such [attorney]; and (B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.”

40. Section 330(a)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that,

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonably based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title [11].

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

41. The congressional policy expressed above provides for adequate compensation in order to continue to attract qualified and competent professionals to bankruptcy cases. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 20 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“Congress’ objective in requiring that the market, not the Court, establish attorneys’ rates was to ensure that bankruptcy cases were staffed by appropriate legal specialists.”); In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 850 (3d Cir. 1994) (“Congress rather clearly intended to provide sufficient economic incentive to lure competent bankruptcy specialists to practice in the bankruptcy courts.”) (citations and internal quotations omitted)

42. In assessing the “reasonableness” of the fees requested, courts have looked to a number of factors, including those first enumerated by the Fifth Circuit in Am. Benefit Life Ins. Co. v. Baddock (In re First Colonial Corp. of Am.), 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), superseded by statute as stated in Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Tex. Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266 (5th Cir. 2015), and thereafter adopted by most courts. See In re Nine Assocs., Inc., 76 B.R. 943, 945 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (adopting First Colonial/Johnson analysis); In re Cuisine Magazine, Inc., 61 B.R. 210, 212-13 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (same); see generally 3 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 330.03[9] (enumerating First Colonial and Johnson as the “leading cases to be considered in determining a reasonable allowance of compensation”).

43. As demonstrated in CohnReznick’s itemized time records for the Compensation Period, the services were performed efficiently and effectively and were done at the request of the Committee in furtherance of the fiduciary obligations or statutory duty of the Committee and were necessary and beneficial to the bankruptcy estates. CohnReznick believes that the foregoing rates for the services rendered are in accordance with the market rates that the majority of professional services firms charge their clients for such services.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES

44. During the Compensation Period CohnReznick incurred $380.50 in expenses on behalf of the Committee. A summary that itemizes all expenses that CohnReznick advanced on behalf of the Committee during the Compensation Period and lists them by category is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

45. In connection with the reimbursement of actual, reasonable and necessary expenses, it is CohnReznick's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for expenses, other than fixed and routine overhead expenses, incurred in connection with representing its clients. The expenses charged to CohnReznick's clients include, among other things, telephone and telecopier, toll and other charges, mail and express mail charges, photocopying charges, out-of-town travel expenses, local transportation expenses, expenses for working meals, out-of-town travel expenses, and computerized research. CohnReznick charges Debtors' estate for these expenses at rates consistent with those charged to CohnReznick's other bankruptcy clients, which rates are equal to or less than the rates charged by CohnReznick to its non-bankruptcy clients. CohnReznick believes that it is fairer to charge these expenses to the clients incurring them than to increase the hourly rates and spread the expenses among all clients. In providing a reimbursable expense, CohnReznick does not make a profit on that expense, whether the service is performed by CohnReznick in-house or through a third party.

NOTICE

46. CohnReznick has served this application in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order and the Bankruptcy Rules. CohnReznick submits that no other or further notice is necessary.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

47. No prior Application for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other Court.

[Remainder of Page Left Intentionally Blank]

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, CohnReznick and CRC respectfully request that the Court:

(a) approve, on an interim basis, the allowance of $80,257.50 for compensation for professional services rendered to the Committee during the period from January 1, 2023 through and including January 31, 2023;

(c) authorize and direct the Debtors to immediately pay to CohnReznick and CRC the amount of $64,206.00, which is equal to the sum of 80% of CohnReznick and CRC's fees and 100% of CohnReznick and CRC's expenses incurred during the Compensation Period.
